

is awarded to

Dr. Arthur Fischbach

for the manuscript

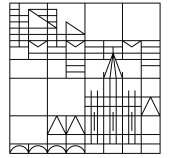

“The C-terminal domain of p53 orchestrates the interplay between non-covalent and covalent poly(ADP-ribosyl)ation of p53 by PARP1”

by

Arthur Fischbach, Annika Krüger, Stephanie Hampp, Greta Assmann, Lisa Rank, Matthias Hufnagel, Martin T. Stöckl, Jan M.F. Fischer, Sebastian Veith, Pascal Rossatti, Magdalena Ganz, Elisa Ferrando-May, Andrea Hartwig, Karin Hauser, Lisa Wiesmüller, Alexander Bürkle and Aswin Mangerich

for publication in Nucleic Acids Research

(accepted on November 22 and published on December 5, 2017)

Department of Biology

Best Paper Award

Winter term 2017/2018

is awarded to

Dr. Jun Li

for the manuscript

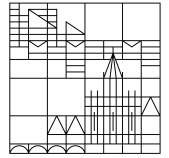

“Immunoproteasome inhibition prevents chronic antibody-mediated allograft rejection in renal transplantation”

by

Jun Li, Michael Basler, Gerardo Alvarez, Thomas Brunner, Christopher J. Kirk and Marcus Groettrup

for publication in Kidney International

(accepted on September 21 and published on November 10, 2017)

is awarded to

Marie-Kristin Nagel

for the manuscript

“Arabidopsis SH3P2 is an ubiquitin-binding protein that functions together with ESCRT-I and the deubiquitylating enzyme AMSH3”

by

Marie-Kristin Nagel, Kamila Kalinowska, Karin Vogel, Gregory D. Reynolds, Zhixiang Wu, Franziska Anzenberger, Mie Ichikawa, Chie Tsutsumi, Masa H. Sato, Bernhard Kuster, Sebastian Y. Bednarek and Erika Isono

for publication in Proc. Natl. Acad. Sci. USA

(accepted on July 17 and published on August 22, 2017)